At "First Look," there were over 1,000 students at HJC and over 100 faculty and administration members. Though it was hard to pin point exactly when the "First Look" was, it was certain that if it were possible, each and every one of the people involved at HJC would view it in a different way. Some would inevitably view it as the "Last Look." The end of a long, beautiful summer, carefree days, and summer jobs.

Freshmen were beginning a very special year, the first one at "Holmes." Sophomores were looking forward to harassing freshmen (instead of being harassed themselves) and graduation. But as they all began to work together, form clubs, teams, and friendships, they realized that no matter what their own individual view of "the first look" was and their hopes for the rest of the year, they all had one main goal — to make 1982-83 the best year ever.

The 1982 football season did not end as gloriously as the 1981 season. The Bulldogs finished with a 3-7 record after winning the state championship the previous season. Under new head coach Johnny Mancel Fulce, the 'Dogs finished like this —

HJC

20	Southwest	24
21	Northeast	12
0	Gulf Coast	16
14	Northwest	62
13	East Central	14
12	Miss. Delta	13
20	Itawamba	29
21	East Miss.	10
54	Coahoma	0
13	Pearl River	36

The Bulldogs had a total of 152 first downs, compared to their opponent's 126. They also completed 41 percent of their passes, to their opponents' 36 percent. They rushed for 180.7 yards per game, while their opponents rushed for 175 per game. On total offense, the Bulldogs had 300 yards per game and their opponents had 265 yards. But on the score board, the Bulldogs trailed their opponents seven times.

Coach Fulce and assistants Hugh Shurden, Ray Bridges, and Robert Felton, led the Bulldogs from one end of the state to another, from Gulf Coast at Perkinston to Northeast at Booneville, with a team made up of 2 to 1 freshmen.

Ross Genovese, a sophomore from College Park, Georgia, was chosen as a National Junior College All-American second team.

Genovese was also selected to the All-Region XXIII team. This region is composed of teams from Mississippi and Louisiana.

The cheerleading squad along with the Bully attended cheerleading camp at Memphis State University in August. Both the cheerleaders and the Bully brought back to HJC superior, excellent, and outstanding ribbons. One of the big accomplishments of camp was bringing back the UCA Spirit Stick.

Sponsor for the girls was Mrs. Jamie Sample, a past HJC cheerleader. She transported the girls to cheerleader camp and all the ballgames. She gave the girls her full support all year.

This year's cheerleaders included Kim Potts and Rhonda Spell, the only second year cheerleaders, and spirited sophomores Lynne Chambers and Sandra Powell. The freshman class was enthusiastically represented by Lisa Tynes, Renne Ward, Edna Seawood, and Beth McClellan.
